

August Hatchings

Pre Orders:

Comic Quest can help you get the books you want more quickly if you preorder... Arcanis, for instance, has three books coming out in the next few weeks (Player's Guide to Arcanis, City of Secrets, and In the Coils of the Serpent Empire), and if you would like any of them, pre-ordering through Jim means you will get them first, before they go out on the shelves. Be sure you not only give them the titles you want, but your name as well! If they don't know your name, they can't hold the books for you and will place them on the sales floor.

Upcoming Events:

Egg has a busy summer planned, so stay informed!

- Aug 19-22: GenCon Indy in Indianapolis!!! Plan ahead! It's only a 3-4 hour drive, so why not join the fun at the best 4 days of gaming? HoR is holding the Jade Tournament, and LA is having a major Battle Interactive, as well as a mega-marketplace! Besides that, there are games running for any system you could imagine.
- Sept 4-6: Labor Day weekend. Arcanis with Relish Con! Join us for another all-weekend all-Arcanis bash! The schedule is already posted on the EGG website, so email webmaster@evansvillegamingguild.com to register for events. Event fees are $2 per 4 hour slot. We are seeking GMs, as well as help to man our conversion table! GMs should have a copy of Player's Guide to Arcanis (at least have one on order) and must have access to both 3.0 and 3.5 PHB and DMGs. They must also be RPGA Herald-level judges.
- Sept 25th: "The Fall of Felgercarb" Dungeon Delve of Death! A D&D version 3.5 dungeon-crawl for 12th level PCs. Character generation info with this newsletter.
- October 16th: World D&D Gameday. Plans underway for a premiere Eberron tournament, as well as an intro mod for those new to D&D.
- October 23-24: EGG's Election/Halloween Party and our first Rokugan convention event, Kyuden no Burdette! We will be running all currently available tabletop "Heroes of Rokugan" events! On Sunday we will be running our first official campaign-affecting interactive, Kyuden no Miya, written by our very own Bryan Faw. The schedule is already posted on the EGG website, so email webmaster@evansvillegamingguild.com to register for events. Be sure to register early to guarantee tables of the events you want! Event fees are $2 per 4 hour slot, and $5 for the interactive.

The Fall of Felgercarb:

Our second fund-raising Dungeon Delve is coming up soon! Character generation guidelines are appended to this newsletter. Characters for this delve need to be 12th level! This delve is also a team endeavour – you will be more likely to win if you can put together a party capable of backing each other up. Start assembling your tables!
