

Thankful Thoughts

Kyuden no Burdette Wrap-up:

Kyuden no Burdette went reasonably well, though a number of local samurai met their deaths in the premiere running of the module "Time to Pay the Price". Thankfully Bayushi Negami made it back to warn the world of the coming darkness. But the Phoenix clan, I'm sure, do not appreciate the warning.

Costume Contest Winners and a Good EGG recognized:

This year we had 4 winners of our contest. 4th place (and a set of dice) went to Brent Goebel as "Child Safety Jason". 3rd place (an engraved mug and dice) winner was Andrew Gregory as Darth Vader. 2nd place (a 6-month membership, engraved mug and dice) went to Kimberly Wajer-Scott as the Sarishan Archprelate. And our 1st place winner (a 1-year membership, engraved mug and mirror) was definitely Tim Davis, appearing as "Chelsey" the bearded lady. Congratulations to all our winners, and props to the man brave enough to wander around in a dress with false boobs all day! ☺

The winner of this year's Good EGG Award was Chuck Scholz. Aside from passing on the traditional rotating statuette, this year we also had a glass mug engraved for our winner. Congrats, and thank you for all the work you've done for EGG!

New Board of Directors:

After our elections, the results are in. Sitting Board members were Chuck Scholz, Jarrod Moschner, Philip Scott, and Chris Helmling. Newly-elected members are Jeri Haupt, Kimberly Wajer-Scott, Mark Richardson, Steve Dycus, and Greg Tuck. Our newly-elected Guildmaster is Mark Richardson. Assistant Guildmaster is Philip Scott. Scribe is still Kimberly Wajer-Scott. Treasurer is now Greg Tuck, and Sergeant-at-arms is Chuck Scholz. Congratulations to the new Board. The next meeting of the Board of Directors is scheduled for Saturday November 13, at Comic Quest at 6pm.

Holiday Thanks and Seasonal Reminder:

Thanksgiving is coming up, and we wish to remind all our members that although Comic Quest will be open, and if you wish to come and game you are welcome to do so, we are not having an official meeting on Saturday November 27th. Also, remember as fall closes in, that if we should happen to get bad weather, please don't risk your health for a game. If the weather is bad enough to close the schools, EGG will not be meeting. Stay home, stay safe, and stay healthy.

Best Wishes and Supportive Thoughts:

This season has been a bad one, and we offer best wishes to our members that are dealing with hardship and loss. James Haupt suffered a stroke in late October, and we send all our thoughts of support to him and his wife Jeri. We wish Jim a speedy recovery, and hope to see him back with us soon. We also send thoughts of sympathy to members Randal and Pennie Schoenbachler, for the loss of fellow member Ashton. Joe Ulrich, our liaison to the Evansville Knights, and one of our oldest and most faithful members, entered the hospital for heart problems, we hope to see him back with us soon, get well Joe!

<http://www.evansvillegamingguild.com>

See you next month, good gaming!

This newsletter maintained by webmaster@evansvillegamingguild.com

This issue dated: 1 November, 2004