Fall of Felgercarb Wrap-up:

The Fall of Felgercarb went well... After a hard fight, Felgercarb was defeated. And EGG was the winner, making $166 dollars from the event. We had some other winners as well! The votes came in and the "King of the Delve" is actually a tie! The 'turret twins' Sean and Ryan Barnett were voted the over all winners. We also have an additional winner; Jason Martin, who won the "Most Fleet of Foot", "Most Creative use of a Swan Boat" and "I Closed the Portals to the Abyss" awards. Andrew Head takes home the "Victim of Felgercarb" award as well, as his paladin went toe-to-toe with the big guy, and unfortunately fate didn't smile on him.

Fall Festival News:

This week begins the Fall Festival again, how time flies! This year, consider helping someone at the event. Cedar Hall School, the school we donate our "Labels and Lids" to, needs help at their booth! Their booth is the yellow one, at the corner of Franklin and 12th Streets, by the stage. Volunteers get free food and beverages from the booth. The times they need help are Tuesday the 5th, 7-10pm; Wednesday the 6th, 4-7 and 7-10pm; Thursday the 7th, 1-4pm; Friday the 8th, 7-10pm; and Saturday the 9th, 1-4, 4-7, and 7-10pm... If you can help out, please call Gaylon at 435-8223 or 431-1671.

Worldwide D&D Gameday:

The next event is Worldwide D&D Gameday! Come help us celebrate the 30th anniversary of D&D. Comic Quest will be hosting this event on Saturday October 16th. Jim has also informed us that Comic Quest will be staying open all night, so come game until the wee hours! We will have a short introductory module for generic D&D, and also a new Eberron module to play! There will be a limited number of prizes to hand out for table play, so come early! Around 4-6 volunteer GMs are still needed for this event. Please see Comic Quest staff or Kimberly Wajer-Scott to volunteer. We will still be having a regular Guild meeting this night, and we are not extensively organizing any late-night games, so get together a table for whatever you like.

Halloween/Election Party:

The Halloween/Election party is scheduled to take place October 23-24th, at the Burdette Park Clubhouse. The grill will be running, and food will be on sale. We will also have a costume contest, as usual. Please check the member's list appended to this issue of the newsletter. Only current members are eligible to vote. If your membership has expired, or you're a new attendee, be sure to get your membership paid current if you wish to vote! Also, if you feel your name has been left off the list in error, please show your current membership card, or payment receipt, to Kimberly Wajer-Scott in order to get our records corrected. If you can't make it, absentee photo ballots will be available through Chuck Scholz shortly. We've instituted the photo-ballot system this year, because we know not everyone recognizes names on paper.

Don't Forget a Good EGG!:

The Good EGG award honors the person who has done the most to help EGG this year. It is awarded at the Halloween/Election party. If you know someone who has done a lot for EGG this year, please give your nominations to Jarrod Moschner! A nomination form is appended to the back of this newsletter.

Kyuden no Burdette:

We are hosting our first Heroes of Rokugan convention event at the Halloween party, Kyuden no Burdette. Saturday for 10am to 10pm we will have tables of Rokugan modules available, and the whole HoR library will be open for play. Sunday we will be playing the Kyuden no Miya HoR interactive! This interactive is being premiered here, and will determine the campaign canon! Of course we will still reserve some tables for general open game play, though space may be a bit crowded, so please be patient and work with us.
